**5** CONSTITUTIONALLY CONSERVATIVE: Supports ALL of the U.S. Constitution—in this petition & elsewhere—not just the “popular” parts. Two examples might be the 2ND AMENDMENT (unpopular with Liberals) and the “Uniformity clause” (Art.I, Sec.8, clause 4, U.S. Constitution, and unpopular with so-called ‘Conservatives’, but not TRUE Conservatives)

**6** MORAL “Rights & Wrongs” CONSERVATIVE—See e.g., my pending case, which a Federal Court reinstated, suing 10 judges

MORAL “Rights & Wrongs” CONSERVATIVE: I sue TEN (10) “Liberal Activist” state judges in Federal Court for Civil Rights abuses—Federal Court reinstates my lawsuit against them:

**8**.-C: 911-call blocking & other bizarre Civil rights abuses:

As if Economic and Racial Inequality/Prejudice/Profiling (above) wasn't bad enough, I've been a victim of bizarre CIVIL RIGHTS violations by local police who blocked my 911 and non-emergency calls to their police department, and been documented to have perjured themselves, plus links to much subsequent news coverage of this sordid “call-blocking” saga. Landing page (below) features four (4) videos: While this was worthy of a Federal Civil Rights lawsuit, I was unable to retain an attorney, and did not feel “big” or “strong” enough to try this myself. BUT—claims above are documented below:

* “Video #1”: A compilation of nine (9) shorter videos documenting the illegal call-blocking.

* “Video #2”: Documentation of illegal perjury by several members of the Lakeland (Fla.) Police Dept.

* “Video #3”: Much subsequent news coverage of this sordid “call-blocking” saga.

* “Video #4”: Huge wreck, and I can't call 911! This picks up where episode 9 of “video #1,” above leaves off, and includes STEREO video/audio footage of the wreck, documented call-block of 911, and then resultant visits to City Commission, including Lakeland (Fla.)

Mayor Bill Mutz, himself, getting involved and asking to “test out” 911. – I grant his request, and we 'test out' both 911 and non-emergency dispatch. LANDING PAGE:

However, it gets worse: While the U.S. Supreme Court is usually a court of “discretionary” (not “mandatory”) jurisdiction (meaning they don't 'have' to take your case), nonetheless, they at LEAST have rules/ guidelines for whether or not to REVIEW a case—such as when I made a timely request to intervene, under CLEAR case-law, including (but not limited to) the following:

Although courts evaluating timeliness consider “the totality of the circumstances,” United States v. Alcan Aluminum, Inc., 25 F.3d 1174, 1181 (3d Cir. 1994), “[p]rejudice is the heart of the timeliness requirement,” Jones v. Caddo Parish Sch. Bd., 735 F.2d 923, 946 (5th Cir. 1984) (en banc). Indeed, “courts are in general agreement that an intervention of right under Rule 24(a) must be granted unless the petition to intervene would work a hardship on one of the original parties.” McDonald v. E.J. Lavino Co., 430 F.2d 1065, 1073 (5th Cir. 1970) (citation omitted). Here, movant possesses the same interest as petitioner and seeks the same relief. Movant will present new arguments on the merits, but, since this is the same outcome that might have happened had Hallward-Driemeier sought rehearing, this adds no unexpected burden on respondents. Thus, respondents will not be prejudiced by movant's intervention.

I expected The High Court to follow their own rules—and let me intervene:

Note: To document the following quotes: “In May 2014 U.S. Rep. Dennis Ross told those listening to a “teletown” hall meeting that if college students can’t repay their loans from a private bank, we should “go back” to our prior laws and allow them to declare bankruptcy...At the teletown hall meeting, Ross also said that we needed to “get the government out of the business of loaning the money because we’re loaning taxpayer dollars.”,” in my Aug. 04, 2016 column, above, I had to provide The Ledger with an audio of the Public town hall meeting (not illegal to record: It was public), and said audio can be found at the links below:

Other notes:

QUOTE: “WASHINGTON, D.C. – Today, Senator Rick Scott released the following statement after reports that the Florida Board of Governors is considering a tuition increase for state university students. As Governor, Senator Scott fought to hold the line on tuition by vetoing tuition increases, eliminating automatic inflationary tuition increases, freezing tuition, greatly limiting tuition differential, and appointing leaders who share his goal of providing an affordable higher education to Florida students and families...Senator Rick Scott said, “Raising tuition on families is a tax increase. And, it’s a tax increase that harms Floridians’ ability to achieve the American dream of earning a higher-education diploma. As families are still struggling to recover from the coronavirus, leaders in Florida should absolutely not consider raising tuition.” [Editor's Note: Boldface emphasis in original; not added.
